Indie Legal Docs CDROM v6.1 - Mac OS X Compatibility Bug Fix

Pleasanton, CA – July 11, 2005 – Red Diamond Media, LLC announced today the release of the Second Edition Indie Legal Docs CDROM version 6.1. The new release fixes an intermittent compatibility problem between v6.0 and certain Mac OS X hardware-software configurations.

“The failure was discovered and corrected early in v6.0 distribution.” said Scott Patterson, Production Manager at Red Diamond Media “We are happy to report 100% containment was achieved and v6.0 customers were notified and emailed the complete doc set to minimize any potential related impact. The thought of a customer on a tight deadline going to use the product and having it crash on them (even a remote chance) is unacceptable. I’ve been there, working until 2:00AM getting ready for a shoot the next day and having something go wrong. That was not going to happen because of us. We are committed to excellence.”

About Indie Legal Docs CDROM

The Indie Legal Docs CDROM (a Red Diamond Media, LLC production) includes 56 Mac/PC compatible sample legal releases and contracts for video, television and film productions.
